British Cruiser

Six United States Warships Meet Funeral Ship at Nantucket Light.

The British cruiser Natal, bringing bome the body of Whitelaw Reld, late embaseador to Great Leitain, reached Nantucket Light Salp at 9 o'clock tide morning. She was mut there by an escort of six United States warships sent to convoy the funeral ship to this port.

The Florida, accompanied by the battleship North Dakota, left Tempkinsville, S. I., yesterday. On their way down the Narrows the battleships were joined by the torpedo-boat destroyers, Roe, McCall, Paulding and Drayton.

The funeral is to take place Saturday morning in the Cathedral of St. John

A committee of members of the Lotes Club, of which Mr. Reid formerly was President, has been appointed to represent the club at the funeral. Members of the committee are Frank R. Law-rence, Chester S. Lord, Charles W. Price, John H. Rhodes, John Eiderkin, William T. Evans, Melville E. Stone, Arthur Warren, Andrew Carnegle. Walter E. Frew, E. G. Snow, Carroll Beckwith, William Berri, Adolph S. Ochs, Clinton W. Sweet, H. K. Burras. William M. Chase. Irving Batcheller. Frederick A. Duneka, Stephen Fiske, Henry Watterson, E. G. Riggs, James Speyer, Irving R. Wiles, F. S. Church and James Creelman. Lieut.-Col. H. C. Lowther of the Scots Guards, Military Secretary of the Duke of Connaught, will arrive to-morrow from Ottawa to represent the Governor-its President-Elect Wilson's at It dias New Design.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 2.-When Woodrow Wilson becomes President of the United States the little gold scarfpin he has been wearing for years will attain the end of its evolution.

When Gov. Wilson was president of Princeton University his stickpin was a miniature Princeton seal, the cost of arms of William of Orange, Duke of Nassau; when he became Governor, Now Jersey's coat of arms displaced it; to wear while he is President, Gov. Wilson te having made a stickpin with a spread eagle and an American shield, the na-tional coat of arms.

"I never liked ostentations display," he said. "but such a little pin as I've een wearing as Governor of the State is inconspicuous and I like to feel that I have constantly with me something that
